5. CHANGE IN NATURE OF RISK

As brokers, we are bound to remind you that Insurance transactions between an Insured and an Insurer are based on good faith.

To safeguard your insurance coverage and comply with policy conditions, you have an obligation, for the entire policy term, to inform your Insurer of any change which might affect the nature of the risk as you have originally declared it to the Insurer on the Application form. Therefore, in order to comply with your insurance policy conditions, you need to advise your broker of any such material change so that your insurer may be notified accordingly.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your broker.
